

Daniel Absil (Président du Jury)

Daniel Absil has produced more than 110 short films, Since 1985 he has been the General Manager of a films production company : "Les fils du centaure". He has produced films in various fields such as culture, technical matters and sciences. Many of his realizations were displayed on TV. He has also produced films for many companies and prestigious events.

He won about 30 prizes on National and International festivals including a "Ceasar" prize for the best movie on the category "Video-Discovery". After 40 years of experience he is now traveling around the world to discover and to produce films about countries and people's from the Middle-East to China and Polynesia.

He is also Vice-President of the "Movies Institute for sciences" (Institut de Cinématographie Scientifique).

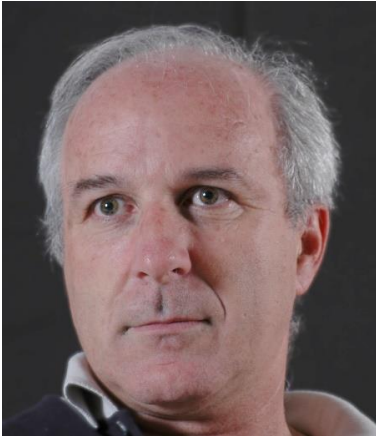

Alain Boyer

*Alain Boyer is the President for the n*8 region of the French Federation for movies and videos.*

*The region n*8 region includes PACA, Languedoc-Roussillon and Corsica.*

He is also President of the association "Les Amis du Festival Courts dans le vent" who is organizing the Festival "Courts dans le vent" in Ventabren.

As a producer he has won many prizes in many Festivals including London, Tokyo and Namur.

Jean-Marc Fiancette

Jean-Marc Fiancette is a National Commissioner for audiovisual realizations at the "Fédération Photographique de France".

He is also President of the "Azur Photo Passion" club in La Colle sur Loup as well as a producer of audiovisual short films.

Nicolas Pélissier

Nicolas Pélissier is professor at the SIC's department, part of the UFR LASH from the Nice-Sophia Antipolis university. Researcher at the I3M-Nice laboratory, he also manages the DISTIC Master 2 and doctoral seminar. Co-facilitator of the CREAMED research network he is the author of works related to the medias transformations generated by digital technologies organized in networks.

He has been teaching new technologies to professional journalists in France as well as other french speaking countries.

He is a town councillor, in charge of the economy of culture and fascinated with cinema.